

In the early time, due to its geographical location nearby Wanhua Station, it developed as Taiwan's first garment wholesale market. It has a history of 50 years as the original site of Taiwan's garment industry including the wholesale market and manufacturing factory around Wanhua Station and Dali Street. At the peak time, there were about 2,000 garment manufacturing factories. This Shopping District is known for a shopping site for dresses of matured women such as"mother" and "mother-in-law." Some shops offer various selections for evening dresses and become very distinctive for young ladies.
